Enshrined in the Library of Congress is a piece of sheet music entitled "Glen Cove Waltz," published in the year 1846.
There weren't many "Glen Coves" in 1846. It is not certain that it was named for our community, but hopefully some sleuth may turn up more information on the who and why of this piece of music. Regrettably there were no local newspapers being printed at the time to document its creation.